

Welcome to a new era in Laramie transportation...

The recently formed Albany County Transportation Authority (ACTA) is pleased to announce the arrival of a new free bus service serving the main corridor of the Laramie community. The Gem City Grand route will provide residents, students, tourists and visitors a free bus ride between Wal-Mart and downtown Laramie seven days a week.

The Gem City Grand route will operate between the hours of 7am-10pm Monday through Friday and 10am-10pm on the weekends. The route is operated by the University of Wyoming Transit & Parking Services and the Eppson Center for Seniors.

The Albany County Transit Authority, University of Wyoming, and the Eppson Center for Seniors are committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in, or denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination in the receipt of its services on the basis of race, color, or national origin, or any other characteristics protected by law, including Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. Further, under the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, no entity shall discriminate against an individual with a physical or mental disability in connection with the provision of transportation service.

To obtain more information on nondiscrimination obligations or to file a complaint, contact The University of Wyoming, Dept. 3434, 1000 E. University Ave. Laramie, WY 82071 (307-766-3459) or the Eppson Center, 1560 N. 3rd Laramie, WY 82072 (307-745-5116). You may file a written complaint no later than 180 calendar days after the date of the alleged discrimination.

Information on non-English alternative formats may be obtained from the University of Wyoming or Eppson Center offices.
